ESCAPE TO THE IDYLIC OUTER HEBRIDES

Sitting on the far North West edge of Europe, far from the hustle and bustle of mainland life, lie the Outer Hebrides of Scotland. A place of tranquility, mystery and beauty scattered with thousands of fresh water lochs, miles of wild flower moorland and edged with mesmerising white sand beaches.

THE BEAUTY OF LEWIS & HARRIS

Lewis and Harris are the largest of the Outer Hebridean Islands and home to around 25,000 people. The economy was built on crofting, fishing and weaving but now tourism, renewable energy and fish farming are growing industries. Stornoway, the main town and commercial centre, boasts fantastic dining options, An Lanntair Arts Centre, Museum nan Eilean and local boutique shops to fill your days and nights. Spot the seals that live in Stornoway harbour or take a boat trip to the Shiant Islands with one of the largest sea bird colonies in the world. Head over to the west side of Lewis to take in the main archaeological and heritage sites of the Hebrides. Get up close and personal with the 5000 year old Callanish Standing Stones, puzzle at the construction of the Carloway Iron Age Broch and step back in time to visit the Gearrannan Blackhouse Village. In the north of Lewis, you will find Commun Eachdraidh Nis (Ness Historical Society) where there is a museum, archive facilities and a fantastic cafe offering homemade light lunches and sweet treats.

Harris's beaches are repeatedly voted as some of the most beautiful in Europe. Enjoy the calm and relaxing white sands of Luskentyre Beach, watch the waves roll in at Niseabost. The east coast of Harris sees isolated fishing villages in a rocky landscape, used as a stand-in for Jupiter in Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey. Trace the MacLeod clan history in the 15th century St Clement's Church in Rodel. Visit Tarbert, the main town of Harris and home of the award-winning Harris Distillery. Stop in to sample their gin or newly launched single malt whisky "The Hearach". The Port of Leverburgh is the launching point for trips to St Kilda, which lie 50 miles off the coast. St Kilda's evacuation in 1930 captivated the world and is now a dual UNESCO world heritage site, with the highest sea cliffs in the UK. Here you have a unique opportunity to walk the abandoned streets of Village Bay.

THE TRANQUILITY OF THE UISTS & BARRA

Berneray, North Uist, Grimsay, Benbecula, South Uist and Eriskay are joined by a series of causeways. Stop off on Berneray, a tiny island with a fishing village and rugged beaches before heading to North Uist. Visit the arts and heritage centre, Taigh Chearsabhagh with its permanent and touring exhibitions. Keep your eyes peeled for the elusive corncrake at the RSPB Balranald Nature Reserve. White sandy beaches, flower strewn machair, rugged hills and low lying moor provide a peaceful but engaging path south to Eriskay. Learn about the culture and heritage of the island at the Kildonan Museum in South Uist, take in the panoramic view from Our Lady of the Isles statue, or stroll along the 20 miles of shell sand beaches on the Atlantic coast.

Eriskay is famed for its' wild ponies and the sinking of the SS Politician, which inspired Whisky Galore! It is a beautiful place to spend a day of your island hopping adventure before catching the short ferry to Barra. Barra boasts a scenic circular route with miles of sea, sand, hills, machair and moor. Head to Northbay to watch the planes land or take off from Traigh Mhor beach runway, the only beach in the world to have a scheduled flight service. Using Barra as a base you can explore the now uninhabited islands of Mingulay, Berneray and Pabbay with majestic sea cliffs and abandoned villages. After a full day of exploring, catch a live traditional Scottish music session in the Vatersay Village Hall and be sure to call in at Buth Bharraigh, the community retail and visitor hub located in the heart of Castlebay.

Skye is a fascinating place to explore as an addition to your holiday in the Outer Hebrides. The Cuillin mountain range provides a stunning backdrop to the picturesque lochs and fishing villages around the island. The town of Portree is the bustling centre of the island, with award winning restaurants and quirky craft boutiques. There's plenty to do across the whole island; swim in the magical Fairy Pools, search for the dinosaur footprints at Staffin Bay, walk up to the Old Man of Storr, discover the Clan MacLeod treasures at Dunvegan Castle or see the island from the water on a fishing or wildlife boat trip. With three local whisky distilleries, you'll be spoilt for choice in choosing a dram at the end of the day. Connected to the mainland by the Kyleakin Bridge, or accessed by the short ferry from Mallaig to Armadale, it's easy to see what makes Skye one of the most popular destinations in Scotland.

How to make your booking

1. We are happy to discuss our many itinerary and accommodation options with you and provide an immediate quote for your holiday. If you prefer you can email us with your holiday ideas, or go to our website www.hebrideanhopscotch.com and complete our web planner, where you can click the things that interest you most about the Hebrides and the essentials for your holiday. We aim to provide a suggested holiday itinerary plus our quotation within one working day of receiving your request, then, if you wish, a quick telephone call to discuss and amend any of the arrangements we are proposing, and it's all done.

2. If you accept our quotation, as soon as we receive your acceptance, we shall make all the travel and accommodation arrangements, subject to availability, then email you our Letter of Booking Confirmation and our Confirmation Invoice, billing you a deposit of £75 per person and specifying the details of your booking, the agreed holiday price, and, if flights are included in your holiday, an ATOL Certificate. If any of the selected accommodation is not available we shall propose the best available alternative.

3. Nine weeks prior to your holiday start date; we will email you our Sales Invoice for the agreed holiday sum, less the deposit paid. This invoice will be payable within seven days, either by bank transfer, debit or credit card, thereby allowing us eight weeks to process your ferry tickets, itinerary etc. and to email all relevant documentation to you.
